

SPEAKER BIO

ANNA ROSA

Anna Rosa was born in London and moved to Venice when she was 18 lived for most of her adult life until she moved to Austria in 2010. She graduated in European Humanities and has experience in a variety of fields of work including teacher in a Montessori school. For over 25 years her natural healing gift has helped people around the world, working individually and in groups. To enable her to understand this 'Gift of Light' she has done a variety of courses including NLP, Croma, Aroma, crystal, therapies, Bach Flowers, Vibrionics, Reiki, Himalayan and Angel healing, different meditation techniques and dance and music. She has interpreted for numerous seminars and conferences which gave her the opportunity to meet some well-known people in the spiritual and holistic field. Ultimately it taught her to just be open hearted and follow the flow. She considers herself a 'Light Worker' Her work and personal quest on the spiritual path has taken her around the world to 5 continents and over 10 times to India and have contact with who she calls 'her light brothers'. Through her holistic work, workshops and seminars she aims to help people to open up to the universal energy of light with open hearts, bringing the spiritual aspect and the UFO experiences together. It is not the proof or the phenomena that is important, but our awareness and consciousness. Humanity and earth are on the verge of huge changes and shift in consciousness, collectively we must prepare ourselves for this change.
