SPEAKER BIO

PETER PAGET

Peter Paget, from London, first advised the British Government in the early 60's and has maintained his connections ever since. Tasked to investigate the unthinkable and work outside the box he has a unique insight into the real stories behind history and the various relationships between this World and others. Author of the best selling paperback, "The Welsh Triangle" and also "UFO-UK" he has contributed to several works on ET and crop circles. Considered by many to be an "Insider" he issued a ground breaking "Disclosure" in Bases 48 at Warminster last year and now expands on his candid and special take on the situations.
