SPEAKER BIO

DARREN BROWN

For many years, I've gone back and forth on whether or not to share the paranormal experiences I've had throughout my life.

My family has always been a top priority, and that's one of the main reasons I've kept these events to myself - until now.

These encounters began in my childhood and have continued right up to the present day. Now, at 55 years old, I feel it's finally time to speak openly about them.
